Appendix A Table of all 109 Pieces

In the table below, all 109 pieces in $Baishida oren\ Gequ$ are listed. Column Index contains the index with respect to the order as given in [63](pp. 84-86; 91-92). Column Romanization indicates the romanization of the piece's name in the column Name. Column Incipit lists the first two characters of the lyrics for facilitated identification of different ci following the same cipai. Column $Mode\ (Original)$ contains the mode as indicated in the piece itself (or, if the piece has music notation but no mode information, N/A). Column $Mode\ (Yanyue)$ contains the name of the mode as introduced in [44].

The 14 songs in section 1 (Shengsong Naogeguchuiqu Shisishou 聖宋鐃歌鼓吹曲十四首) are preceded by a preface, and the titles having three characters each coincide with the first three characters of the respective songs.

In section 2 (Qinqu Yishou 琴曲一首), there is a short text Ceshangdiao 側商調 describing the mode of the same name, and a table named Diaoxianfa 調弦法 containing information about tuning the guqin strings accordingly. After this comes the guqin piece Guyuan 古怨.

For the 10 pieces in lülüpu notation in section 3 (Yuejiuge Shishou 越九歌十首), the mode in column Mode (Yanyue) was determined by the mode information as contained in the title or indicated separately, except for the first piece Dishun Chudiao 帝舜楚調, where the mode was determined manually using the tone inventory and the final note. In addition, this section contains a preface, a table titled Gujin Pufa 古今譜法 indicating the relationship between lülüpu and gongchepu, and an explanation of the zhezi 折字 symbol appearing in some of the ten pieces titled Zhezi Fa 折字法.

In section 5 (Man 慢) are the only pieces in Baishidaoren Gequ that contain mode information while not having music notation, namely Qitianle 齊天樂, Faquxianxianyin 法曲獻仙吟, and Pipaxian 琵琶仙. Regarding Qitianle 齊天樂, the mode is indicated as 黄钟宫 (meaning Huangzhongjun zhi Gong 黄钟均之宫 respectively Zhenggong 正宫) which is not to be confused with the mode 黄钟宫 in the 28 modes of Yanyue (indicating Wuyi zhi Gong 无射均之宫).
